1) Master Curriculum

BOKU has in recent years changed academic studies according to Bologna outline into BSc.; MSc. and PhD. We are now in the process of evaluating the study outcome and curriculum of the Mountain Forestry Master Programme.

This is your chance to give input on your experience about studying Mountain Forestry at BOKU for the evaluation of the Master Programme !!!

2) Internet survey

We developed an internet survey for your feedback on the Master Programme and its lectures. You will be contacted via mail within the next few days.

To get a better insight into where our Alumni work you will be asked to give information on your current work and also how far the knowledge gained in individual lectures of the Mountain Forestry Master Programme is useful for you current work.

Please take this chance to assist us on the evaluation of the Mountain Forestry Master Programme for the benefit of future students!

3) Home page

We have adapted our homepage to the new logo created for the Mountain Forestry Master Programme last year.

You will also find new information in application procedure and scholarship possibilities <http://www.boku.ac.at/mf.html>

4) Facebook Group

We want to invite you to join our new facebook group "Mountain Forestry".
Let's keep in touch!

5) BOKU Alumni Mountain Forestry working group

The BOKU Alumni association has started a Mountain Forestry working group for all former Mountain Forestry students.

You can register via internet: <http://alumni.boku.ac.at/en/alumni/mitgliedschaft.php>

Tick "Master Mountain Forestry" at the Studienrichtung section and you will get the following information, "Dear Mountain Forestry Alumni, as Mountain Forestry Alumni you do not have to pay membership fees. Due to high mail charges the BOKU Alumni newspaper will not be posted to you. If you wish you will receive information on job (student/graduate) and events (please tick relevant box below). Mountain Forestry Alumni will also receive an annual newsletter on BOKU information. Please tick for type of membership student/young professional."

6) Agnes Geissberger-new member of the Mountain Forestry Team

Agnes Geissberger will be responsible for the whole application procedure and also assist with visas and residence permit.

We wish you all the best, keep in touch.

Greetings from Austria,

The Mountain Forestry Team

Georg Gratzner, Ewald Pertlik, Cordula Lennkh, Agnes Geissberger, Judith Schaufler (study assistant)
