

Austrian Representations in the Asian Partner countries

If you choose to apply for BOKU University, please be aware of the fact that in case you get selected for the scholarship, you will have to certify some documents at your national Ministry and in the Austrian Embassy in order to follow the internal BOKU admission procedure. The authorization of a document ("Beglaubigung" in German) costs around 30 Euros (it will not be reimbursed by BOKU).

If you are admitted internally to BOKU, you will have to apply for a visa or for a residence permit depending on the length of your planned stay in Austria. Please pay attention to the fact that you will have to cover the visa costs on your own.

Type of mobility at BOKU	Type of visa	Required documents	Application procedure
PD6, T3	Residence visa D (Aufenthaltsvisum D) for entry to and residence in Austria for a stay of at least 91 days and a maximum of 6 months (excepts students with Japanese nationality)	http://www.oead.at/english/austria/entry/index.html	A couple of days
B10, M22, D34	Residence permit "Special cases of gainful employment" (Aufenthaltsbewilligung Sonderfälle unselbständiger Erwerbstätiger)	http://www.oead.at/english/austria/entry/index.html	Can take up to 3 months!

The Austrian representation does not exist in all Asian Partner countries!
